Request to Durham Constabulary under the Freedom of Information Act
Received on 16/06/2022 Our Ref: FOI/488/22

Date: 15/06/2022

Your request:

Pleas confirm if covid rules were broken in relation to kier starmer and his team.

More info has come to light that it was pre arranged.

Not in his constituency, more than 30 having beer and pizza.

This is clearly a breach. It is not in his hometown or place of work.

If Boris has been fined over cake that never passed his lips, in his place if work.
Then this should def be a fine of larger proportion.

Who else attended, beside the labour party.

Response:

Pleas confirm if covid rules were broken in relation to kier starmer and his team.

Who else attended, beside the labour party.

Durham Constabulary can neither confirm nor deny that it holds any information relevant to your request as the duty in Section 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) does not apply by virtue of the following exemptions under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

Section 40 (5) Personal Information

Section 30 (3) Investigations

Section 31 (3) Law Enforcement

S.40 (5) Personal Information.

Durham Constabulary (the Force) neither confirms nor denies that it holds the personal information you have requested as the duty in Section 1(1) (a) of the FOIA (General Right of Access) does not apply by virtue of either the Section 40 (5A) & Section 40 (5B) (a) (i) FOIA (Personal Information) exemption.

A Freedom of Information request is not a private i.e., a one-to-one disclosure. Both the request itself, and any information disclosed, are considered suitable for open publication i.e., can be published on the Force's external website. This is because, under FOIA, any information disclosed is released into the wider public domain, effectively to the world at large and not just to one individual i.e., the person who made the FOI request.

To confirm or deny whether personal information exists in response to your request under FOIA, could publicly reveal information about third-party individuals, thereby breaching the right to privacy afforded to ALL persons under the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

If you are requesting third party personal data, Durham Constabulary must ensure that it complies with the fair processing Principles outlined under section 34 of the DPA 2018 and under Article 5 of the GDPR and in the main will only release third party information to another person, via a Court Order.

Section 30 (3) Investigations

Section 30 (3) is a class based exemption, this exemption requires me to perform a Public Interest Test and describe harm that could be caused if the constabulary was to either confirm or deny that the requested information is held:

Harm

The harm in confirming or denying that the requested information is held would be that it could affect / hinder an ongoing police investigation.

Please follow below link to access Durham Constabulary's (The Force's) press statement issued on the 6th May 2022 regarding the confirmation of the commencement of an investigation:

<https://www.durham.police.uk/News/News-Articles/2022/May/Durham-Constabulary-Press-Statement.aspx#:~:text=Durham%20Constabulary%20Press%20Statement%20Post ed%20on%20Friday%206.gathering%20in%20Durham%20City%20on%20April%2030%202021.>

Public interest in favour of confirming or denying the requested information is held:

It is acknowledged there is a public interest in this investigation.

Investigations are funded with public money.

The public are entitled to know that Durham Constabulary Is conducting investigations in an effective manner.

Public interest in favour of neither confirming or denying that the requested information is held:

This investigation is currently ongoing, to disclose any information (or even confirm if it is or isn't held) could affect and possibly undermine that investigation.

The greater public interest is that police investigations should be allowed to continue unaffected and unhindered by any release of information (or to confirm or deny specific information is held)

Balancing Test

As this is currently an active / open investigation, the public interest balance has fallen in favour of not confirming or denying that any information is held in relation to your request.

An ongoing investigation must be allowed to continue unhindered.

S.31 (3) Law Enforcement

Section 31 (3) is a prejudice-based exemption, this exemption requires me to perform a Public Interest Test and describe harm that could be caused if the constabulary was to either confirm or deny that the requested information is held:

Harm

The harm in confirming or denying that the requested information is held would be that it could affect / hinder an ongoing police investigation.

Public interest in favour of confirming or denying the requested information is held:

It is acknowledged there is a public interest in this investigation.

Investigations are funded with public money.

Public interest in favour of neither confirming or denying that the requested information is held:

This investigation is currently ongoing, to disclose any information (or even confirm if it is or isn't held) could affect and possibly undermine that investigation and subsequently reduce Durham Constabulary's Law enforcement capabilities.

To confirm or deny any information is held in relation to your quest would in essence by disclosing evidence that may or may not be held in relation to a live investigation, this would undoubtedly affect the law enforcement capabilities of Durham Constabulary.

Balancing Test

As this is currently an active / open investigation, the public interest balance has fallen in favour of not confirming or denying that any information is held in relation to your request.

It is also in the Public Interest that Durham Constabulary maintains its Law Enforcement capabilities.

CONCLUSION

This Section 17 (1) FOI Refusal Notice does not confirm or deny that Durham Constabulary holds the information that you have requested, and this decision is in no way an indication that the information requested is or is not held by the force.

Please note that Durham Constabulary's response to your request is unique and should not be used as a comparison with any other Force response you receive.
