

Police Station Information – April 2024

From 2015 onwards, there have been 12 operational police stations within the Durham Constabulary jurisdiction.

Since 2015, one police station has changed site: Barnard Castle in April 2017.

In addition, the station at Newton Aycliffe closed in 2013 but re-opened in the same town at a different location, without a break.

Further details of current stations may be located at the link below:

Local Police Stations \(durham.police.uk\)