

TAP YOUR PHONE TO GET ME HOME

Do you care for a vulnerable person living with dementia and worry they might go missing?

The Dementia Safeguarding Wristband Scheme is here to help those with dementia and their families and carers. The band holds important information, so if someone gets lost or goes missing it can be used to help reunite them with their family and carers quickly and safely.